Topic: How School Fosters Human Excellence through Conscience - 3 Ways

The Class Assembly of XI D was hosted on 11.07.2025 (Friday) on the topic “How School Fosters Human Excellence through Conscience - 3 ways”.

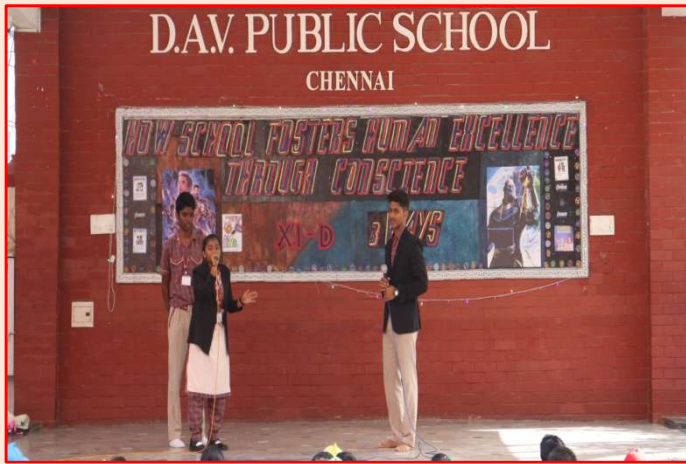

The Emcees of the Assembly, Rithika K and G Adithi coordinated the Assembly proceedings. The Assembly began with the Gayatri Mantra followed by the DAV Gaan. Akshaya Shree set the tone with the formal Welcome Speech.

The students performed a play, ‘Business Event’ in which they portrayed two business men – one honest and real (Srinithi J) and the other, a dishonest one (A Khagesh). The dishonest one who used to make alterations in his financial statements was conscience- stricken and realised his faults. The performers thoughtfully struck a chord at ‘Where Ethics Meet Ambition’.

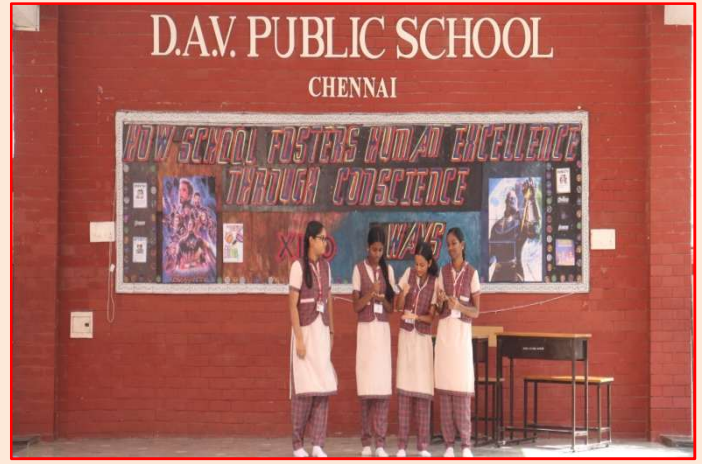

Eight Artists of the Class beautifully depicted the need for being empathetic through a ‘Mime’ which showcased conscience and empathy towards others. ‘India’s Got Patent’, a game show demonstrated the core essence of Moral values among the students who contested in the show. A Panel of judges evaluated the participants based on the components of their ‘Moral Compass’.

The Alumni, Parents and Grandparents congratulated the students for their meaningful performance. On behalf of XI D, Sruthilaya B M and Yuvasri extended their heartfelt gratitude to the Principal, Supervisory Heads, Teachers and Non-Teaching Staff for their guidance and support, and the DAVites who contributed in making the event a resounding success and a memorable one.

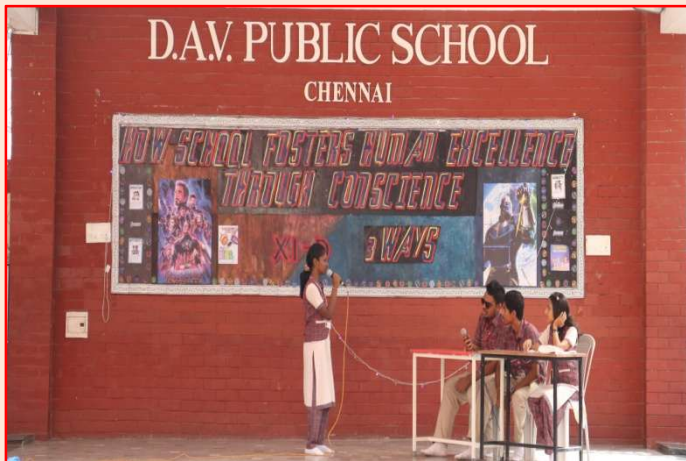

The Assembly provided a platform for showcasing and nurturing the talents and potential of the students. It also fostered Team Spirit, Coordination, and Leadership Skills amongst the performers and the spectators.
