Class Teacher: Ms. S Bhuvaneshwari

Date: 28.08.2025 (Thursday)

Timings: 8:45 a.m. - 09:15 a.m.

Class Strength: 42

Topic: How to Inculcate Value of Time / Punctuality – 2 ways

The Class Assembly of Std. II E commenced with the DAV Gaan, followed by the the Gayatri Mantra, which created a serene and spiritual atmosphere.

The students then solemnly took the Pledge, affirming their commitment to discipline and responsibility. A warm Welcome Speech greeted the gathering and set a gracious tone for the programme.

The assembly proceeded with a creative Placard Display, where children showcased meaningful placards and explained the acronyms and their underlying meaning. Their explanations emphasized the importance of punctuality, time management, and discipline in daily life, making the display both informative and thought-provoking.

An engaging Skit was then presented, illustrating the consequences of being late and how punctuality leads to success. The dramatization by the students left a lasting impact on the audience.

This was followed by a lively Dance Performance, which symbolized the joy, rhythm, and harmony achieved through time management and discipline. The students' graceful and enthusiastic performance received much appreciation. Their enthusiasm was appreciated by the Supervisory Head.

The assembly drew towards its conclusion with a heartfelt Vote of Thanks, expressing gratitude to all who contributed to the success of the programme. The gathering then rose for the National Anthem and the chanting of Shanti Paat, which brought the proceedings to a dignified close.
