The second Dance Club Session was held on 29.8.26 (Saturday) with active participation of the students. The session commenced with warm-up exercise, followed by an Introduction to the “Navararasas” – the nine emotions expressed in classical dance and a Video presentation on different styles of Western dance.

The Students were divided into groups based on their preferred dance styles and were assigned the theme “presentation of Navarasas”. The students’ talents and creativity were showcased through performances based on the theme.

The most memorable part of the session was the interaction with our Principal, Mrs. Sujatha M. The Students demonstrated their dancing abilities, showcased their skills and interacted enthusiastically with the Principal. The session concluded with a video presentation of the Opening Dance performance from the School’s Annual Day Celebration.
