Topic: How School Fosters Human Excellence through Competence

On the bright morning of July 8, at 8:30 IST, Class XI C proudly inaugurated the Class XI Assembly series with an energetic and inspiring performance. With the backdrop beautifully designed by the art team and the comperes, Jeevana and Aatif setting the tone, the atmosphere was abuzz with excitement. “Well begun is half done”.

The soul-stirring rendition of the Gayatri Mantra by the class choir, struck chords in every heart. It was followed by a beautiful Welcome Speech by Sai Krithi, transporting the audience to a breezy scene at Marina Beach.

The highlight was the creative show-style performance led by Mr. Feast, accompanied by assistants and a hilarious accuser role. Humour, competence, skill and a bit of magic was part of this performance. The segment included four main things. Firstly, depictions of a brain-teasing quiz show, representing our school’s prowess in academic endeavors. Secondly, a courtroom ad that depicted our school’s approach towards Holistic Development. Thirdly, a spirited depiction of sports like Chess, Cricket, Football and Kho-Kho which reiterated the fact that our school does its best in sports as well. It depicted the journey that Students embark on and make them, born winners.

The final segment showcased the class’s talents in singing and acting, culminating in a Valedictory Ceremony. The programme portrayed the growth and potential shaped by the school’s values. It emphasized that our school is the forge where we are all moulded into shiny trophies. Jeevana’s poetic tribute made all our Gurus feel validated for their work. Constructive feedback from the Supervisory Head and Parents gave the Students the gusto to stay focused. The Vote of Thanks by Srisanjana wrapped things up exceptionally for the assembly, warming everyone’s hearts.

The event concluded with the Shanti Paat and National Anthem, marking the celebration of 15 days of hard work, creativity, and unity.

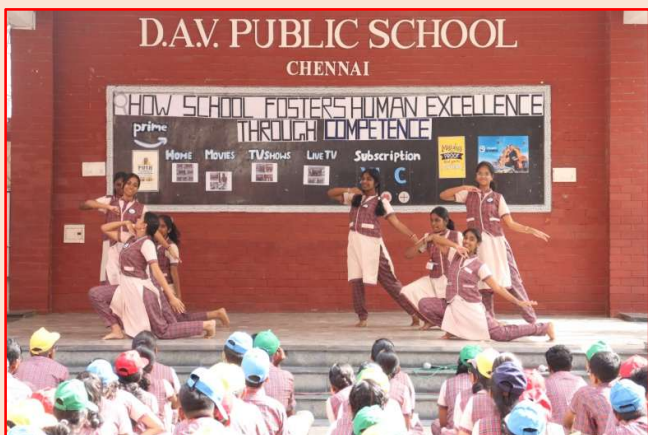

“Competence is what the school cultivated in us. We don’t disappoint in the real world due to what our school does for us. Every challenge and competition is an opportunity and this school has taught us to seize it with both hands”.
