REPORT ON CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

The Christmas Celebration 2025 was observed with great reverence, joy, and festive enthusiasm. The programme reflected the true spirit of Christmas that is, Love, Peace, Sharing, and Togetherness through a series of thoughtfully curated performances.

The programme was hosted by Nishita S and Anooshka R of Class XI. The day started with a welcome accorded by Siddhaanth P, who warmly greeted the gathering and highlighted the importance of Christmas, as a festival of hope and goodwill. The celebration commenced with a Solemn Prayer Song by the Teachers, whose melodious rendition created a calm and devotional atmosphere, seeking divine blessings for the event.

This was followed by the enlightening 'Christmas Gospel' by Jessica Christy and M Ashley Karen Sylvia of Class XI and XII respectively. Adding charm to the programme, the U.K.G. students presented 'Tiny Tots' Christmas Melody', delighting the audience with their innocence, cheerful expressions, and melodious singing.

The stage then came alive with enthusiasm as the L.K.G. students performed 'Star Moves', a lively dance showcasing their confidence, coordination, and joyfulness. The festive mood was further enhanced by 'Harmony of Voice', a solo performance whose harmonious vocals beautifully captured the essence of the Christmas spirit.

A meaningful dimension was added through the skit 'Messiah: The Saviour', performed by the students of Class XI. The skit portrayed the true message of Christmas, emphasizing love, sacrifice, and humanity. The Dance Performance, 'Jingle Vibes' enthralled the audience with its vibrant choreography, rhythm, and expressive movements.

The devotional performance 'Stuthi Geetham' by the students of Class XI created a serene and reflective ambience, reminding everyone of gratitude and faith. Continuing the musical journey, the students of Classes IX and X presented 'Angels on Earth', the soulful Christmas carols that emphasized unity, joy, and the warmth of togetherness. The lively presence of Secret Santa Claus, excited everyone and the Christmas 'Vibe' switched from solemnity to adrenaline rush.

The programme was further made lively by the address of the Principal, Ms. Sujatha M who shared her valuable observations and appreciated the collective efforts of the students and organizers. The celebration concluded with the Vote of Thanks proposed by Devadharshini, who expressed sincere gratitude to the Management, teachers, participants, and all those who contributed to the success of the event.

The Christmas Day Celebration 2025 was a memorable event that beautifully blended talent, devotion, and festive cheer, leaving the audience with hearts brimming with joy and gratitude.
