Topic: How School identifies the Aptitude and moulds passion for Learning a Subject among Students - 3 Ways

The Class Assembly of X A was held on 31st July 2025 on the topic “How School Identifies the Aptitude and Moulds Passion for Learning a Subject among Students in 3 Ways”. A day when everyone in the class got a chance to exhibit their skills in the school platform.

The Morning Assembly commenced with a soulful rendition of the ‘DAV Gaan’, followed by the serene chanting of the ‘Gayatri Mantra’, invoking the blessings of the Almighty. The gathering was graciously welcomed by R Niranjana and Adarsh Priyan, extending warm greetings to the esteemed Principal, Mrs. Sujatha M, the Supervisory Head, Mrs. Uma S, the Teachers, Parents, and the fellow students.

The programme beautifully illustrated how different academic subjects nurture core values through meaningful and engaging activities. A group of talented students captivated the audience with an engaging game of Dumb Charades, symbolizing the excitement and enthusiasm of Inter House Competitions. This was followed by an energetic dance performance that transported the audience into the spirited atmosphere of Inter School events.

The assembly concluded on a heartfelt note with a touching 'Thank You' poem recited by Ankith Nambiar and Vanshika Raj, expressing deep gratitude to all who supported and inspired them. To lighten the mood and engage the audience, Arnav Meshram, Sai Mahati, Saanvi Rakesh, and Saranathan Kannan added delightful touches of melodious music through well-timed fillers.

The assembly showcased not only the diverse talents of the students but also the school's dedication to nurturing each learner's growth with guidance, encouragement and care.

The Principal appreciated the students for their tremendous effort in putting up such a vibrant and meaningful assembly. She also interacted with the students and their parents, emphasizing the school's pivotal role in shaping young minds and reaffirming its unwavering commitment to fostering Holistic Development.
