Topic: How to Lend a Helping Hand for the Needy

The assembly of class Std I B was a resounding success, with the participation of entire class on Tuesday 3rd November, 2025 under the guidance of their class teacher. The gathering was welcomed and greeted by G Nithika Sai, followed by the DAV Gaan and Gayathri Mantra, seeking guidance, wisdom, and a disciplined spirit to help them throughout the day. Eshika S delivered the Pledge

The Assembly centered around the school theme – “HOW TO LEND A HELPING HAND TO THE NEEDY”. The students showcased their talents with a song which “A Small action leads to a Big Impact” song which perfectly captured the theme. Their energetic and harmonious singing left a lasting impression.

The highlight of the assembly was the ‘Walk and Talk’, a speech based on the theme. Students held up placards with inspiring messages about and helping others. Each student briefly explained the significance of the message, emphasizing the importance of lending a helping hand.

The skit that followed effectively conveyed the value of being attentive to the needs of family members and others. By depicting acts of kindness, such as giving food, water, clothes The students demonstrated that helping others in any situation not only brings satisfaction but also societal recognition and appreciations.

The dance set to an uplifting song, beautifully captured the joy helping others and being there for those in need.

The assembly was successful, leaving a lasting impression on the students and staff. The various activities effectively communicated the importance of showing help towards the needy people, and the student's participation was commendable. The assembly ended with a vote of thanks by Shravan Kumar expressing gratitude to all who contributed to making the event meaningful and memorable.
