REPORT ON HUMAN RIGHTS AND FUNDAMENTAL DUTIES DAY

Date : December 9, 2025

Host Class : X

D.A.V. Public School, Velachery, commemorated Human Rights and Fundamental Duties Day with fervor on December 9, 2025. The Day was observed to reflect upon the universal rights inherently bestowed upon every individual and reaffirm the Constitutional Duties that shape the people of India into Responsible, Ethical, and Compassionate Citizens.

The event, adeptly hosted by Yuvan Pradosh of XB and Jessica Lauren of XC, commenced with the resonant chanting of the Gayatri Mantra, setting a contemplative tone. In the Welcome Address, Tanish and KVS Gowtham of XA eloquently underscored the symbiosis of 'Rights and Duties' in nurturing responsible citizenship.

Niranjana of XA and Richitha of XC deliberated on the day's significance and elucidated on the principles of Human Rights and Fundamental Duties that cultivate a just and harmonious society. The articulate and insightful explanation reminded the spectators of the profound relevance of the day in strengthening the nation.

Manasvi of X A and Likhith Sai Anchula of X B shed light on the essence of Fundamental Duties, exhorting students to be proactive contributors to societal progress. A poignant and thought provoking skit by the talented students of Std. X brought to life the Constitutional Privileges through dramatization and portrayed themes of Equality, Dignity, Responsibility and Justice.

The event culminated with a sincere Vote of Thanks by Varsha of XC and Smrithi of XE, the National Anthem and a serene Shanti Paat, fostering a spirit of Unity and Civic responsibility.

United for Rights, Dignity and Justice for All!

Empowering Equality, Upholding Dignity, Celebrating Human Rights!
