Topic: How Working together can make Learning More Effective by being helpful and supportive to each other

The Class Assembly of IV C was held on 6th August 2025 on the topic “How Working together can make Learning More Effective by being helpful and supportive to each other”.

The stage was decorated with the title of the theme, posters, and colourful picture drawn by students on different teamwork activity done in the class. The students of Class IV C were the audience for the programme along with the teachers, parents and grandparents.

The programme started at 8:45 a.m. with the ‘DAV Gaan’ followed by chanting of the ‘Gayatri Mantra’. Krishika warmly welcomed everyone and introduced the theme of mutual support in learning with clarity and sincerity, setting a positive tone for the event.

The assembly proceeded with a solemn school prayer, fostering unity and mindfulness. Dharun confidently recited the school pledge, reminding students of their responsibilities towards learning and community service.

A group of students recited a poem celebrating empathy, encouragement and collaboration emphasising how helping one another enhances learning experience. The highlight of the programme was a short drama, depicting sceneries where a student struggled with a concept and peered stepped into explain it patiently. The interaction not only improved the students understanding but also showcased the benefits of collaborative learning and supportive peer relationship.

Students held placards with phrases such as “Together We Learn Better”, “Support Builds Skills”, and “Help a Friend, Strengthen Yourself”, reinforcing the assembly theme visually. A lively group dance performance integrated songs about teamwork, helping hands, and shared success, energizing the audience and subtly reinforcing the key messages.

Anuradha proposed the Vote of Thanks, expressing gratitude to the performers, organizers, and audience, and reiterating the assembly’s message: meaningful learning blossoms through supportive collaboration. The program followed a clear sequence of formal and creative segments, maintaining students’ attention and enthusiasm. Each component tied back to the core idea - support and collaboration make learning more effective.

Students participated in key roles, boosting confidence and reinforcing peer learning dynamics. The mix of rituals (prayer, pledge) and performances (poem, skit, dance) ensured a balance of solemnity and creative engagement.

Our Supervisory Head Mrs. Durgalakshmi S appreciated the students for their tremendous effort for putting up a great show and interacted with the students and their parents. She also motivated students to work in team and help one another to enhance their learning. "The program concluded with the National Anthem, followed by the Shanti Paat."
