REPORT ON THE CLASS ASSEMBLY OF II B DURING THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2025-26

Class Teacher: Ms. Anusha Vikram

Date: 21.08.2025 (Thursday)

Timings: 8:45 a.m. - 09:15 a.m.

Class Strength: 37

Topic: How to Respect and take care of Grand Parents - 2 ways

The Class Assembly started with the melodious DAV Gaan, followed by the Gayatri Mantra, which instilled a sense of positivity and discipline among all present.

This was succeeded by the Pledge, wherein students vowed to nurture their patriotic spirit and pledged to be responsible citizens of the country. A graceful and confident Welcome Address that made the audience attentive and eager for the programme ahead. An insightful speech by introducing the theme ‘Respecting and Caring for Grandparents’, wherein the vital role of showing love, patience, and gratitude towards them was effectively highlighted. A vibrant Ramp Walk presentation, students with placards in hand, conveyed the values of love, respect, and gratitude towards grandparents.

A thought-provoking Skit beautifully portrayed how love, patience, and gratitude towards grandparents strengthen family bonds. The students creatively depicted the role of respect and care in nurturing relationships with grandparents.

A graceful Dance performance, where students expressed the theme of respect and gratitude through rhythm and movement. The lively Dance performance reflected students’ enthusiasm and teamwork while spreading the values of respect and care. The Supervisory Head lauded the students for their active engagement and vibrant performance.

The assembly concluded gracefully with a sincere Vote of Thanks, followed by the National Anthem and Shanti Paat, bringing the programme to a respectful and dignified close.

Little Voices, Big Prayers
