Topic: How School Fosters Human Excellence Through Competence – 3 Ways

The Assembly of Class XI C was conducted on 21 July, 2026 on the topic “How School Fosters Human Excellence through Competence – 3 Ways”. The programme began with the rendition of the Tamizh Thaa Vazhthu, Gayatri Mantra and DAV Gaan, creating a peaceful and inspiring atmosphere for the Assembly.

The Assembly focused on How School nurtured Competence by helping students gain Knowledge and Experience thus, enabling them to grow into confident, talented and capable individuals. The compere guided the audience throughout the programme, ensuring a smooth flow and creating an engaging connection between every segment of the Assembly.

The first event was an interactive interview with the accomplished sports personalities of the class. They shared their inspiring experiences, challenges, achievements, and the valuable lessons they had learnt through sports. Their journey highlighted how experience builds Resilience, Confidence, Discipline, and Competence.

The second event was an exciting game show, where the audience enthusiastically participated by answering questions from various sources of knowledge. Winners were rewarded with prizes, making learning enjoyable and interactive. The activity beautifully demonstrated how knowledge strengthens Competence and encourages curiosity and quick thinking.

The final event was a vibrant dance performance that celebrated the students’ Creativity, Confidence and Aesthetics. The performance reflected how talent, when nurtured by the school, contributes to Holistic Development and inspires students to strive for Excellence.

The Class expressed their sincere gratitude to the Principal, teachers, students, and everyone who contributed to the success of the Assembly. The Supervisory Head appreciated the students for their confident presentation and meaningful message. The Assembly successfully conveyed that the School fosters Human Excellence through Competence and prepares students to face challenges in life and shoulder responsibilities with confidence.
