REPORT ON NATIONAL READING DAY CELEBRATION

DATE: 21.06.2025 (Saturday)

EVENT HOST: STUDENTS OF CLASS VIII

To commemorate National Reading Day and foster a love for books among young learners, our school organized a vibrant Reading Day Celebration for Classes VII and VIII on June 21st.

The celebration began with a brief session where the importance of reading was highlighted by our Supervisory Head Mrs. Uma S. A presentation on “The Power of Reading” set the tone, emphasizing how reading sharpens imagination, builds empathy, and fuels academic success.

An array of engaging activities was organized to encourage active student participation. As part of our commitment to fostering critical thinking and effective communication among students, our school hosted an intellectually stimulating Debate Session and a vibrant Talk Show Event for students of Classes VII and VIII. Those events provided a dynamic platform for learners to express themselves confidently, respectfully, and creatively, promoting essential life skills.

Debate Session: "Voices in Action", the debate unfolded with great energy as teams tackled the topic "INK vs PIXEL". Students showcased impressive research, eloquence, and the art of persuasive argument. The panel of judges commended the students for their insightful viewpoints, confident delivery, and balanced counterarguments. The atmosphere was charged with enthusiasm, and the audience was deeply engaged throughout the session.

Key Highlights on the Debate Session

- Clearly structured arguments supported with real-life examples.
- Respectful rebuttals fostering a healthy exchange of ideas.
- Judging criteria based on content, delivery, and logical coherence.

Talk Show Event: " My language My pride"

The event designed to simulate real-world media interviews, featured students assuming the roles of hosts and invited guests—ranging from fictional characters to local change-makers and renowned personalities.

The entire session was witty, relatable, and thought-provoking, touching upon topics such as the power of reading, different languages spoken in different countries and environmental awareness. What truly set the talk show apart was the spontaneity and confidence displayed by students, coupled with charming moments of humour and empathy.

Audience interaction and engaging talk show made the experience both educational and highly entertaining.

Both the Debate and Talk Show served as empowering experiences, enabling students to enhance their public speaking, critical thinking, and interpersonal skills. The school acknowledges and appreciates the efforts of the organizing team and participating students for making the event a grand success.

REPORT ON NATIONAL READING DAY CELEBRATION

DATE: 19.06.2025 (Thursday)

EVENT HOST: STUDENTS OF CLASS III

National Reading Day was joyfully celebrated in Class III to encourage a love for books among students on 19th of June 2025. Each child was given a library book of their choice to explore and enjoy. One enthusiastic student read a story aloud in class, capturing everyone's attention with clear voice and expression. The teachers took the opportunity to highlight the importance of reading in daily life, explaining how reading helps build a strong vocabulary and improves the ability to express thoughts clearly. The session ended with students sharing what they liked about their books, making it a meaningful and engaging experience for all.
