TOPIC - How School Promotes Thinking Skills Among Students – 3 Ways

The Class Assembly on the thought-provoking theme “How School Promotes Thinking Skills Among Students in Three Ways” was conducted with remarkable enthusiasm and intellectual depth. The programme was eloquently compered by Isha Singh and Dhairya, whose confident and graceful anchoring ensured a seamless progression of events.

The Assembly commenced on an auspicious note with the rendition of Tamil Thai Vazhthu, followed by the soulful chanting of the Gayatri Mantra and the spirited D.A.V. Gaan, invoking a sense of cultural pride and spiritual harmony.

The Opening Ode and Welcome Address was delivered by Johan Ipe, who set the tone with a gracious and articulate introduction, emphasizing the significance of nurturing Thinking Skills in students. Following this, Akshitha Kumar delivered an enlightening speech on the foundation of the Arya Samaj, highlighting its principles and its enduring emphasis on rational thought, education, and social reform.

The segment ‘Dramatic Vignettes’ featured a compelling skit titled ‘Compass Point – NEWS’, which vividly illustrated how students are guided to analyse situations, evaluate information, and arrive at reasoned conclusions. This was followed by an intellectually stimulating debate on ‘AI vs Thinking Skills’, where participants presented cogent arguments, underscoring the indispensable role of human intellect in an increasingly technology-driven world.

Adding vibrancy and aura to the programme, the ‘Think Smart – Quiz’ encouraged active participation and challenged the audience with logical reasoning and analytical abilities.

A profound and impactful speech titled ‘Think, Pause, Choose’ was delivered by Siddharth Behara, who eloquently elaborated on how school cultivates Critical Thinking through Inquiry-Based Learning, Collaborative Experiences, and Reflective Practices. He also extended a thoughtful appeal to parents, urging them to exercise discernment and responsibility while making choices, particularly in the context of voting.

The programme culminated with a heartfelt Vote of Thanks proposed by Vijayalakshmi, who expressed sincere gratitude to all those who contributed to the success of the Assembly.

The Assembly concluded on a dignified note with the National Anthem, followed by the serene recitation of the Shanti Paat, leaving the audience inspired and reflective.

Overall, the Assembly was a harmonious confluence of creativity, intellect, and purpose. It effectively emphasized the pivotal role of the school in fostering and strengthening Thinking Skills among Students.
