Topic: Elements of the Nature - Fire

The Class Assembly of U.K.G. E was conducted on 1st November 2025 Saturday at Vatika premises. The theme of the assembly was Elements of nature on the topic Fire.

The assembly was hosted by Srinidhi, Bhavikshadoliya, and Yoharasachozhan with great confidence and enthusiasm.

The assembly commenced with a warm Welcome Speech by Thanmathi setting the tone for the day's programme, followed by school prayer invoking blessings and unity.

The National Pledge was delivered with allegiance by Faazila reaffirming our love and commitment to the nation.

A delightful group song, presented by a group of 7 students, filled the atmosphere with melody and enthusiasm. Their harmonious voices brought smiles to everyone's faces.

The highlight of the assembly was an informative talk on the fire safety measures by 10 students of the class. They confidently shared valuable points on how to be safe during the emergencies and calling for the help when needed.

To further emphasize the theme, 4 students presented a short yet engaging skit depicting the scenario on the topic Fire – Our Friend and Enemy conveyed not only the message but also the teamwork and responsibility.

Following the skit, group of 4 students shared interesting facts about flames and the role of oxygen in flames. Their informative presentation was impressive and well received.

The entire class then came together for a colourful group dance showcasing rhythm, coordination and joy. The performance was energetic to celebrate the spirit of learning and togetherness.

The Vote of Thanks was presented by Amarthika, expressing the gratitude to the Principal madam, teachers, parents, and friends.

The Assembly was concluded with the national anthem followed by the School Motto rendered by Yakshika.

The U.K.G. E Assembly was grand success, provided the young learners an opportunity to build confidence and communication skills. The efforts of the students were truly commendable.
