Topic: Teamwork in Sports and Games

The Class Assembly of Std. IV B was held on 28 July, 2026 on the topic “Teamwork in Sports and Games” in the Vatika Premises. The stage was decorated with the title of the theme, posters, and colourful pictures drawn by students on different teamwork activity done in the class. The students of Class IV C were the audience for the programme along with the teachers, parents and grandparents.

The programme started at 8:45 a.m. with Tamizh Thaaai Vazhthu followed by the ‘DAV Gaan’ chanting of the ‘Gayatri Mantra’. The school assembly was conducted on the theme “Teamwork in Sports and Games”, highlighting the importance of cooperation, coordination, mutual support, and team spirit in achieving success.

Aadhya Battini delivered the welcome speech, warmly welcoming the gathering and introducing the theme .The speech emphasized that success in sports and games is not only about individual talent but also about teamwork, trust, communication, and supporting one another.

Roshan delivered the pledge, reminding students of their responsibilities, discipline, and commitment to working together as a team. Sam and Labdhi served as the comperes and guided the audience smoothly through the various segments of the programme. Their confident compering maintained the flow of the assembly and kept the audience engaged.

The assembly featured various creative presentations that conveyed the significance of teamwork. Students highlighted how players must cooperate, encourage their teammates, follow strategies, and work towards a common goal. The performances demonstrated that every team member has an important role to play.

A placard presentation reinforced the theme through meaningful messages related to unity, cooperation, team spirit, and shared success. The visual presentation helped students understand that working together can make a team stronger and more successful.

A lively group dance performance further brought out the spirit of teamwork. The synchronized movements demonstrated coordination, cooperation, and the importance of working together to achieve a common objective.

The assembly concluded with the Vote of Thanks delivered by Revansika and Daksha, who expressed gratitude to the school management, teachers, students, performers, and everyone who contributed to the successful conduct of the programme. They reiterated the message that teamwork, cooperation, and mutual support are the foundations of success in sports and in life.

The assembly was conducted in a well-organised manner, with students actively participating in different roles. Each segment effectively conveyed the importance of teamwork and encouraged students to value cooperation, sportsmanship, discipline, and respect for their teammates.

Overall, the assembly was an engaging and meaningful presentation that successfully emphasised the spirit of “Together We Can Achieve More”.

The mix of rituals (prayer, pledge) and performances (poem, dance) ensured a balance of solemnity and creative engagement. Our Supervisory Head appreciated the students for their tremendous effort for putting up a great show and interacted with the students and their parents. She also motivated students to work as a team and help each enhance their learning. The programme concluded with the National Anthem, followed by the Shanti Paat.
