TOPIC- How School Promotes Social Skills Among Students – Team Work- 3 ways

The Class Choir of VIII C flagged off the Assembly with the rendition of Thamizhthai Vazhthu, followed by ‘Gayatri Mantra’, and the ‘DAV Gaan’. The Comperes Sanjay and Vidhun presented the Warm Beginnings, through a ‘Welcome Address’.

The first programme of the Assembly was a Talk Show on ‘Team Work’. Hema Valliammai, Akshaya and Yashika waxed eloquent on the meaning and dimensions of Social Skills and Team Work.

The next programme was ‘The Reform Revolution’ in which the students highlighted the contribution of Arya Samaj in Social Reforms in the society in the fields of education, women empowerment and social equality.

The main programme of the Assembly was ‘Team Work Pyramid’. The objective of the programme was to showcase the values, actions and outcomes of ‘Team Work’ in the form of a Graphic Organiser.

The first layer of the Pyramid showed the Values that form the foundation of ‘Team Work’ namely Respect, Trust, Responsibility, Listening and Empathy. The second layer depicted the different activities that are part of the school curriculum that help in development of Team Work like Group Activities, Sports, Competitions and Celebrations.

The third layer highlighted the skills that are required for successfully working in a team namely Cooperation, Coordination, Collaboration and Confidence.

The final layer showed the outcome of the Values, Deeds and Skills that are developed through the various activities – ‘SUCCESS’.

The final programme of the Assembly was ‘The Rhythm of Togetherness’. Students grooved to peppy song that spoke about the importance of Team Work. The impeccable coordination and the lively dance of the students was highly enjoyed by the audience.

Shrinithi and Sudiksha presented the Vote of Thanks expressing gratitude to the Principal, Supervisory Head, Teachers, Audience, Parents, Grandparents and Students of Std. VIII C for their excellent preparation and presentation of the Assembly.
