Topic: How to Respect and Take Care of Grandparents

The Class Assembly of Std II B was presented on the theme “How to Respect and Take Care of Grandparents”. The programme aimed to help students understand the importance of respecting, caring and showing gratitude towards their grandparents.

The assembly commenced with Tamizh Thaaai Vazhthu, DAV Gaan, followed by the chanting of the Gayatri Mantra, creating a peaceful and spiritual atmosphere. The students then took the Pledge, reaffirming their commitment to becoming responsible and respectful individuals.

This was followed by a warm Welcome Speech, which set a cheerful and gracious tone for the programme. The students then presented a meaningful speech titled “Little Voices on Big Values”, where they shared simple yet thoughtful messages about respecting and caring for their grandparents.

The assembly continued with the melodious song “Melody of Love & Care”, which beautifully expressed the special bond between grandparents and grandchildren. An engaging skit titled “Home of Kindness” followed, portraying simple situations that highlighted love, patience, care and respect towards grandparents.

The students then presented “A Grandchild’s Pledge – A Promise to Grandparents”, expressing heartfelt promises to care for, listen to and value their grandparents.

The programme continued with the graceful dance performance “Dance of Thankfulness”, which celebrated the love and gratitude children feel towards their grandparents.

The assembly concluded with a heartfelt Vote of Thanks, expressing gratitude to everyone who contributed to the success of the programme. The gathering then rose for the National Anthem, followed by the Shanti Paat, bringing the assembly to a dignified close.

The programme successfully conveyed the message that Respect, Love and Gratitude towards Grandparents make every home happier and stronger.
