Topic: How to Be Disciplined on the Road

The Class Assembly of Std. III D was held on 6 August 2026, on the topic ‘How to Be Disciplined on the Road’.

The Class Assembly commenced with a solemn prayer ceremony, invoking the blessings of the Almighty. This was followed by Gayatri Mantra and D.A.V. Gaan, which reflected a sense of spirituality and devotion. The pledge was then taken, with the students vowing to uphold the values of unity, integrity and loyalty towards the nation.

A warm welcome speech was delivered, greeting the teachers, parents and grandparents. The speech set a positive tone, showcasing the student’s confidence. The opening of the speech was very powerful and engaging.

An informative speech on the theme “How to Be Disciplined on the Road” emphasized the importance of respecting traffic rules, being alert on the road, following the speed limits, wearing helmets, being patient and respecting others. The speech encouraged students to follow these principles, and practice discipline and responsibility even while travelling on the road. It was engaging and motivational, providing valuable insights for students to cultivate discipline in their daily lives.

The vibrant ramp walk was performed by the students with placards to spread awareness about the importance of following road safety rules.

The students then performed a skit on the importance of being disciplined on the road. Through facial expressions, body language and coordination, they highlighted the importance of wearing helmets, avoiding the use of mobile phones while driving and valuing human life. The students’ performance was engaging and conveyed the importance of these habits in an entertaining and impactful manner.

The vibrant dance performance showcased students’ energy and creativity. The performance effectively conveyed the message of road safety and discipline. The rhythm, melody and the coordinated movement created a lively atmosphere. The music and synchronized movements kept the audience engaged while spreading the message of caution and discipline on the road.

The assembly concluded with the Vote of Thanks followed by National Anthem, Shanti Paat and the School Motto.
