Topic: How to Show Kindness to Animals

The Class Assembly commenced with a serene Prayer, invoking peace and harmony for all living beings, followed by the National Pledge, where students reaffirmed their commitment to unity, responsibility, and compassion toward both people and animals.

The Welcome Address was warm and cheerful extended heartfelt greetings to the Principal, teachers, parents, and classmates, setting a gracious and joyful tone for the morning. The spirit of empathy and kindness was beautifully reflected throughout the programme.

A thought – provoking Speech on Compassion towards Animals highlighted everyone on the importance of caring for and protecting animals, emphasizing that kindness to all creatures is a true mark of humanity.

The Skit titled “Healing Paws,” was a touching portrays of acts and kindness can save an injured puppy spreading awareness about animal care.

The vibrant Placard Display on “How to Show Compassion towards Animals” reinforced the message of kindness and empathy with thoughtful slogans.

The next performance, “Caring from the Rooftop,” depicted a little girl offering water and grains to thirsty birds, reminded everyone that small deeds of love can bring great happiness.

A thought-provoking Skit, “Trapped by Plastic, Freed by Kindness,” highlighted the harmful effects of plastic waste on wildlife. Students enacted the rescue of a deer trapped by a plastic bottle, inspiring the audience to keep the environment clean and safe for animals.

The assembly reached its lively peak with a joyful dance performance, “Joyful Paws,” where students expressed the happiness of animals living freely and safely through rhythm and movement.

A heartfelt Vote of Thanks followed, expressing gratitude to the Principal Madam, Supervisory Head, Teachers, Parents, Classmates, and supporting staff for their encouragement and cooperation.

The programme concluded with the National Anthem followed by Shanti Paath, a prayer for universal peace and harmony among humans, animals, and nature, leaving everyone inspired to practice compassion in their daily lives.
