Timing: 8.30 a.m. to 9.00 a.m.

Date/Day: 06.08.2025 (Wednesday)

Class Strength: 39

Topic: How School Sensitizes Students towards Community Service by Raising Calamity Relief Fund

Main Comperes: Deeksha Ramani T and Apoorva Yadavalli

The assembly commenced with a powerful quote made by the Father of Our Nation, Mahatma Gandhi, effectively highlighting the importance of action and empathy. The programme beautifully wove together various artistic expressions to underscore the theme of Calamity Relief and Collective Action.

Program Highlights:

Arithra S accorded the welcome, setting an inspiring tone for the assembly. The speech effectively introduced the day's theme, emphasizing the collective responsibility towards community welfare and the immediate need for calamity relief. Her clear articulation and enthusiastic delivery ensured an impactful start to the proceedings.

“The Starry-Eyed Samaritan”, was the highlight of the assembly. More than 20 students, participated in the skit that brilliantly depicted the journey of an individual discovering the joy and impact of selfless service, particularly in times of distress. It served as a poignant reminder of how even small acts of kindness can create a ripple effect in the society.

“The Guiding Star Initiative”, outlined various measures taken by the school to sensitize students towards community service and fund-raising for calamity relief. The presentation showcased the school's proactive approach in instilling values of compassion and social responsibility among its students. The presenter chronicled the initiatives and future plans, demonstrating a sustained commitment to the noble cause.

The Choir Group of the class presented a powerful version of the Timeless Anthem “We Shall Overcome”, an anthem of hope, unity, and strength that make people come together.

The assembly concluded with a vibrant dance performance, “The Orbit of Our Own”. The dance, led by Priyanshu, Ashmita and Jayeta, showcased a dynamic and well-choreographed routine. The dance symbolized unity, collective action, and the idea that every individual's contribution, no matter how small, creates a powerful orbit of positive change within the community. The energy and enthusiasm of the dancers was infectious, leaving a lasting impression on every spectator.

Aprameya, Rithvik, and Ashutosh captivated the audience with their instrumental spectacle, “The Stellar Crescendo”. The orchestra was not only soothing but also evoked a sense of hope and resilience, perfectly aligning with the theme of overcoming adversity through collective effort. Their synchronization and musical prowess were truly impressive.

The Learning Outcomes and “Thank You, To The Moon and Back!”, (Vote of Thanks) by Idhaya J and Dakshesh M summarized the takeaways and shared the gratitude. The Supervisory Head, praised the students for their effort and creativity. She commended the assembly's coherent theme and the students' ability to convey a powerful message about community service. She encouraged the students to continue their involvement in meaningful initiatives.

The impactful and memorable assembly of Std. IX A effectively conveyed the importance of contributing to calamity relief efforts, as all the students resolved to continue their commitment to service.
