Topic: How School Prepares Students to Become Leaders - 3 Ways

The Class Assembly of Std X C was conducted on the theme “How School Prepares Students to Become Leaders - 3 Ways” on 11th April, 2026.

The Assembly began with the thought provoking quote, “Leadership and learning are indispensable to each other,” setting a meaningful tone for the programme.

The Programme commenced with Igniters of Direction, Aaradhana and Dhanvanth who gave an introduction and outlined the Assembly. This was followed by Divine Moments, the melodious rendition of the Prayer and Anthem that created a calm and reflective atmosphere. After the prayer, the Course Shapers, Shravan and Divyasri elaborated on the idea of Leadership and its importance in student life. The Welcome Address by Inesh and Pooja added warmth and positivity, making the audience feel engaged and included.

The segment Guiding Spark featured a skit titled Leadership Begins in School, performed by 13 students. The act effectively portrayed the difference between a dominating leader and a supportive one, emphasizing the importance of respect, teamwork and guidance. It highlighted how the School fosters Leadership through everyday practices such as School Council Elections, Class Monitorship and Class Room Activities that include Problem Based and Project Based Learning. The skit clearly conveyed that Leadership at D.A.V.P.S. is not merely taught but actively practised.

This was followed by The Unspoken Leader, a mime depicting a silent cricket match. Through expressive actions, the performance showed two teams - one guided by strong leadership and the other lacking it. The mime effectively communicated that while individual effort matters, it is Leadership that ensures consistent team performance.

Stepping Forward, presented an energetic dance performance. The choreography reflected unity, coordination, and enthusiasm. The final formation, displaying the medals won by the class, symbolized achievement through teamwork and leadership nurtured within the school. The segment of Power Perception featured an Interactive Quiz conducted by Hansika and Prethiksha, encouraging active participation from students of Classes IX and X. The cultural segment concluded with Rise Within, where Dhanika and Nidharshana sang the song ‘Believer’, delivering a spirited and impactful presentation. The programme concluded with Unbound Gratitude, where Rakshitha and Sanjana expressed sincere thanks to everyone involved.

The Assembly reflected the dedication, coordination and teamwork of Class X C. The well-organized programme clearly demonstrated how D.A.V. Public School prepares its students to become Confident and Capable Leaders.
