Topic: How school stimulates Critical Thinking among students in 3 ways

The school assembly held on 19.08.25 centred on the theme “How School Stimulates Critical Thinking Among Students in – 3 ways.” The programme began with a solemn prayer, setting a reflective tone, and the welcome address by Nikita. W. This was followed by a speech highlighting the importance of critical thinking in academic and everyday life.

A puzzle play-off engaged students in quick decision-making, challenging and logical reasoning. It tested their problem-solving skills and critical thinking.

The skit effectively conveyed the importance of critical thinking by engaging the audience with thought-provoking scenarios. Brain teasers further challenged students to think outside the box and apply analytical skills.

To balance the intellectual activities, a vibrant dance performance added energy, creativity and skill captivating the audience and added enthusiasm to the event.

The assembly concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks by Vidhun Karthi and the National Anthem, reinforcing unity and respect.

Overall, the assembly successfully blended educational and creative elements to inspire curiosity, reasoning, and active participation among students. Such initiatives are essential in nurturing thoughtful, confident learners.
