REPORT ON CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION - VATIKA

Host Class : V Date: 24.12.25
Time : 10:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.

The Vatika Campus was filled with vibrant energy and heartfelt joy on December 24, 2025, during its delightful Christmas Day celebration. The event began on a serene note with the soulful chanting of the Gayatri Mantra and the harmonious DAV Gaan. Following a cordial welcome note, the insightful introduction titled "Christmas: A Message of Love," set a compassionate tone for the occasion.

The programme was expertly hosted by the confident students of Grade 5, who managed the flow of events with an admirable poise. The talented group of Class 5 students took center stage with a riveting skit titled "A Saviour is Born", which beautifully recreating the nativity through poignant performances and authentic costumes. This was followed by a vibrant performance by "Dance Elite" troupe whose breathtaking and dynamic display left the audience enthralled.

Adding to the festive spirit, the students of Std. 4 and 6 presented melodic Christmas Carols. Their angelic voices filled the air with festive cheer and nostalgic warmth, enhancing the joyful ambience of the celebration.

The main highlight of the celebration was the arrival of Santa Claus, who brought immense joy and excitement to everyone present. With his cheerful dance moves and warm interactions, Santa spread happiness among the students and delighted them by distributing gifts. His lively presence and infectious cheer added a magical touch to the celebration, making the event truly memorable for all.

During the event, the Supervisory Heads Ms. Suma Mary and Ms. Vasumathi V addressed the students, sharing valuable messages of Kindness, Love, and Unity. The celebration concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks.

Overall, it was a grand and memorable day that showcased the creative talents of the students and reflected the warm, friendly community spirit of the Vatika Campus.
