Topic: Teamwork in the Presentation of Activities in the Classroom

The morning Assembly presented by Class IV A was a meaningful and well-organized programme based on the theme “Teamwork in the Presentation of Activities in the Classroom”. The students displayed confidence, coordination, and enthusiasm throughout the assembly.

The programme commenced with the Gayatri Mantra, creating a peaceful and positive atmosphere. This was followed by the DAV Gaan, which filled everyone with pride and strengthened the spirit of the DAV family. The students then took the Pledge, reaffirming their commitment to honesty, discipline, and responsibility.

The assembly continued with a warm Welcome Speech, in which the audience was greeted with respect and enthusiasm. A thoughtful Speech on the Theme highlighted the importance of teamwork, explaining how cooperation, mutual respect, and shared responsibility help students perform classroom activities successfully. The message encouraged everyone to work together and appreciate each other's strengths.

The students then presented a beautiful Hindi poem that conveyed the value of unity and cooperation. This was followed by a lively dance performance, which captivated the audience with its colourful presentation, graceful movements, and energetic expressions.

The programme concluded with a heartfelt Vote of Thanks, expressing gratitude to the Principal, teachers, and fellow students for their encouragement and support. The assembly ended with the National Anthem and Shanti Paat, leaving everyone inspired with a sense of unity, discipline, and peace.

The assembly was highly appreciated by the Principal, teachers, and students for its excellent coordination, confident presentations, and meaningful message. It was a memorable learning experience that beautifully reflected the values of teamwork and collaboration.
