

REPORT ON CHISELLING ENGLISH COMPETENCE FOR TEACHERS

Training Program Conducted on : 10.04.2025 (Thursday)

Resource Person : Dr.L.R.S.Kalanithi,M.A.,M.Phil.,B.Ed.,PGCTE,DYDW, Ph.D.,
Associate Professor of English, Research Supervisor & Dean,
School of Languages, Guru Nanak College (Autonomous)

OVERVIEW:

Dr. Kalanidhi's session on "Chiselling English Competence" was an engaging and informative experience for teachers. The session aimed to enhance participants' understanding of the English language and improve their teaching skills.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS:

Elements of English Language:

1. Phonetics: Dr. Kalanidhi discussed the sounds of the English language, including phonetic transcriptions and pronunciation.
2. Grammar: The session covered essential grammar rules, including sentence structure and syntax.
3. Vocabulary: Participants learned new words, phrases, and expressions to enhance their vocabulary.

Common Misspellings and Corrections:

Dr. Kalanidhi highlighted frequently misspelled words and provided corrections, helping participants to:

1. Identify common errors
2. Understand spelling rules
3. Improve their writing skills

Pronunciation and Phonetic Sounds:

The session focused on

1. Correct pronunciation: Resource person demonstrated the correct pronunciation of words, including phonetic sounds of each alphabet.
2. Phonetic awareness: Participants gained a better understanding of phonetic transcriptions and pronunciation.

Sentence Structure and Grammar:

1. Proper sentence usage: Participants learned how to construct grammatically correct sentences.
2. Grammar and syntax: The session covered essential grammar rules and sentence structure.

Common Errors and Guidance:

The session identified common errors made by students and teachers, providing guidance on:

1. Error analysis: Participants learned to analyze and identify errors.
2. Strategies for improvement: Dr. Kalanidhi offered practical tips and strategies to avoid common errors.

The "Chiselling English Competence" session was a valuable experience for teachers, providing insights into the English language and practical strategies for improvement. Participants left with a better understanding of phonetics, grammar, vocabulary, and sentence structure, as well as tools to enhance their teaching skills.

EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATION SKILLS BY DR. L.R.S. KALANIDHI-DEAN, SCHOOL OF LANGUAGES, GURU NANAK COLLEGE, CHENNAI

