REPORT ON THE CLASS ASSEMBLY OF I D DURING THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2026 - 27

Class Teacher: Ms. Gayathri M Date / Day: 16.09.2026 (Wednesday)

Timing: 8:45 a.m. to 9:15 a.m. Class Strength: 42

Topic: How to Show kindness to Animals

The Class Assembly commenced with a serene Prayer, followed by the National Pledge, highlighting the values of responsibility, care, and compassion.

A warm Welcome Address set a cheerful tone for the morning and introduced the theme, "How to Show Kindness to Animals."

The theme was further presented through an inspiring animal quote, highlighting the importance of love, care, and compassion towards animals.

The Placard Show, "Amazing Animal Facts", provided interesting and fascinating facts about animals, helping students learn more about the animal world and appreciate its diversity.

The skit "Language of Kindness" beautifully conveyed the importance of treating animals with love, care, and compassion.

The students then presented a colourful "Paws and Claws Parade", wearing different animal masks and confidently taking part in a ramp walk on stage. Their lively presentation added colour and excitement to the programme.

The "Jungle of Joy" group dance added energy and enthusiasm to the assembly, delighting the audience with a vibrant celebration of the animal world.

The assembly then moved towards "Words of Gratitude" – the Vote of Thanks, expressing sincere appreciation to everyone who contributed to the successful programme. This was followed by a meaningful takeaway message encouraging everyone to be kind and helpful towards animals.

The programme concluded with the National Anthem, followed by the Shanti Paat and the School Motto.

Overall, the assembly was an informative, creative, and value-based presentation. The students participation demonstrated Confidence, Teamwork, Creativity and Compassion. The programme successfully conveyed the message that small acts of kindness can make a big difference in the lives of animals.
