Topic: How School Fosters Human Excellence through Competence- 3 Ways

The Students of Std. XII D performed an enthusiastic and dynamic assembly on the theme, “How School Fosters Human Excellence through Competence – in 3 Ways” highlighting Knowledge, Skills, Experience, Attitude and Behaviour.

The event, based on the book ‘Before The Coffee Gets Cold’, began with a few brief moments of prayer through the Gayatri Mantra, which was followed by the DAV Gaan. The Welcome Address was delivered confidently, lighting the spark for the day’s show.

The highlight of the Assembly was the use of an ensemble cast, with the main character ‘Shakthi’s’ role being handed over to multiple performers.

The cast depicted a Classroom scene aimed to enhance the importance of knowledge, elevating it as the highest asset one can earn and own. The Second sequence presented a ballet that demonstrated the importance of teamwork both for an individual as well as a team.

This performance highlighted that one may possess the worldly characteristics of Knowledge and Skills, but listening to those who he/she is surrounded with is hugely important. The lack of listening may not only lead to failure in a particular aspect, as shown in the form of an election loss, but may also leave those disappointed whom he/she depends on for a particular result.

The Assembly drove home the significance of becoming well-rounded and competent students. The Principal, Mrs. Sujatha M, parents, and the alumni from various streams of study gave their valuable feedback.

The programme concluded with a bright display of the awards and recognitions received by the students of Std. XII D. The curtains were drawn with the Vote of Thanks followed by the National Anthem and Shanti Paat.

The Assembly was an evident attestation to how DAVPS, Chennai fosters Human Excellence through Competence in its students, implanting values in them for life, making them better human beings by the day.
