Topic: Teamwork in Maintaining a Clean and Organized Classroom

“Cleanliness and organizing is a practice, not project.” - Meagan Francis.

Guided by this timeless thought, the students of Class IV D presented a meaningful and engaging class assembly on the theme “Teamwork in Maintaining a Clean and Organized Classroom”.

Prayer is not just asking things of God and talking to Him, but also listening to Him. It is in the silence, calm and tranquility of prayer that you can listen carefully to him. The assembly commenced with the Tamizh Thaa Vazhthu and DAV Gaan, creating a serene and dignified ambience. The Welcome Address and National Pledge reflected the values of unity, discipline, and responsible citizenship, setting an inspiring tone for the programme.

A short speech on the theme “Cleanliness” was presented in English and Tamil. The student highlighted the importance of maintaining personal hygiene and keeping the classroom, school and surroundings clean.

The highlight of the assembly was the ‘Villupattu’ an innovative presentation. The programme conveyed the importance of maintaining personal and classroom hygiene in an interesting and engaging manner.

The students presented the topic through Songs and a Short Speech, highlighting the need to keep the surroundings clean, use dustbins properly, avoid littering, and develop good cleanliness habits.

A dance performance based on the theme “Cleanliness” was presented during the school assembly. The students conveyed the importance of maintaining personal hygiene and keeping the classroom and surroundings clean through an energetic and meaningful dance.

The Supervisory Head and parents appreciated the assembly programme and gave Positive Feedback on the students’ performances. They appreciated the students’ confidence, enthusiasm and the meaningful message conveyed through the Speech, Song and Dance on the theme of cleanliness.

The assembly concluded on a positive note with the National Anthem, followed by the Shanti Paat, creating a peaceful and respectful atmosphere. The programme ended successfully, leaving the students with a meaningful message about the importance of cleanliness.
