Topic: How to Identify Musical intelligence among students

The Class Assembly of Class VI B was conducted on April 16, 2026 centered on the theme ‘How to Identify Musical intelligence among students’. The programme unfolded with great enthusiasm and showcased the students’ talents and creativity.

The assembly commenced with a solemn prayer, setting a serene and respectful tone for the gathering. Naman Nair and Liyana Anjuman were the comperes for the journey on Musical Intelligence. This was followed by a warm welcome speech delivered by Sashwath G, who greeted the audience and introduced the theme of the day.

Namish Jangir and Mukund Sai presented an insightful session on Musical Intelligence, explaining its importance and benefits in enhancing creativity, concentration, and emotional well-being. This was followed by a thoughtful presentation on how to develop Musical Intelligence, offering practical tips for nurturing musical skills in everyday life. Vaibhav Singh emphasised that listening to music, regular practice, and active participation are three different ways to develop Musical Intelligence.

To demonstrate rhythm and coordination, Lithika and Jhaanvi led a lively Handclapping Fiesta, which engaged the audience with energy and synchronization.

The highlight of the morning was the Keyboard Harmony, where Amey Agarwal and Abin Anton played the patriotic song ‘Sare Jahaan Se Accha’, filling the hall with pride and melody.

Adding vibrancy to the programme, the students performed a spirited group dance to the song ‘Made in India’, celebrating cultural pride and unity. The assembly also featured an inspiring narration of the life story of Lata Mangeshkar, paying tribute to the legendary singer’s and her invaluable contributions to Indian music.

The musical journey continued with a heartfelt rendition of the song ‘Ae Mere Watan Ke Logo’, evoking Patriotism and admiration for the sacrifices of our nation’s heroes.

The assembly concluded with a note of gratitude by Anika Ramesh, who expressed appreciation to the teachers, participants and audience for their support and encouragement. The gathering then stood together for the National Anthem, reflecting unity and respect.
