The Class Assembly of U.K.G. D was conducted on 1st November 2025. The Assembly was conducted at Vatika premises.

The Class Assembly on the topic "Elements of Nature - Sky" was conducted with great enthusiasm and participation from the students. The programme began with a welcome speech by Mukundhasree Kantrapeta followed by School Prayer invoking blessings for a peaceful and productive day. It was followed by the National Pledge, where the students took an oath to be responsible citizens of the nation was conveyed by Ananya A.

The entire event was compered by Aarush Bala Sundaram who introduced the theme of the day - the Sky, one of the most beautiful and essential elements of nature.

Next, 10 students one after the other addressed the audience with their speech on sky highlighting its beauty, importance, and how it inspires creativity and imagination. The students also showcased colorful Placards with meaningful quotes and messages about the sky, such as "The sky is the daily bread of the eyes" and "The sky speaks in a thousand colors".

A delightful skit was presented by a group of 8 students, depicting the beauty of the sky during different times of the day -Dawn, Dusk, Sunrise, Sunset and night. Creativity of the students conveyed how the sky influences our mood and environment.

Followed by Group Dance by 40 students, the audience enjoyed the group dance performed by the students, celebrating the wonders of nature through graceful movements and vibrant expressions.

Next, the students shared numerous inspirational quotes on SKY - "The Sky is full of magic and dreams".

The Programme concluded with a heartfelt Vote of Thanks by Chezhiyan K, expressing gratitude to Principal ma'am, teachers, students, and school management for their support and encouragement. The Class assembly ended with School Motto, conveyed by N Athulya, marking the end of a successful and memorable assembly.
