Topic: How Working Together Can Make Learning More Effective by Being Helpful and Supportive to Each Other

The students of Class IV C presented a vibrant and thought-provoking class assembly on the topic “How Working Together Can Make Learning More Effective by Being Helpful and Supportive to Each Other”. The assembly beautifully emphasised the importance of teamwork, cooperation, kindness, and mutual support in creating a positive learning environment.

The programme began with Tamizh Thaa Vazhthu, followed by the Gayatri Mantra, DAV Gaan and the Pledge, instilling a sense of discipline and patriotism among the students.

The students warmly welcomed the gathering with a Welcome Speech, followed by an inspiring speech on “Together We Learn Better”, highlighting how collaboration and helping one another lead to greater success in learning.

A unique Five Fingers of Teamwork Ramp Walk creatively portrayed the values of helping, sharing, caring, respecting, and encouraging one another. The Placard Presentation reinforced these values with meaningful slogans promoting unity and cooperation.

The highlight of the assembly was a well-enacted Skit that demonstrated how teamwork enables students to overcome challenges and achieve common goals. The energetic Dance Performance further conveyed the message that togetherness and cooperation make every task enjoyable and successful.

The programme concluded with a heartfelt Vote of Thanks, expressing gratitude to the Principal, teachers, parents, grandparents, and all those who attended the assembly. The assembly came to an end with the National Anthem and Shanti Paat, leaving everyone inspired to practise the values of teamwork and support in their daily lives.

The assembly was informative, engaging, and effectively conveyed that learning becomes more meaningful and enjoyable when everyone works together with kindness, respect, and cooperation.
