Topic: How School Sensitizes Students to Contribute towards the Cause of Humanity - Child Labour

The Assembly commenced with the Tamizh Thaa Vazhthu, followed by the chanting of the Gayatri Mantra and the DAV Gaan, invoking the blessings of the Almighty.

This was followed by Words of Welcome, a heartfelt Welcome Address extending warm greetings to our esteemed Principal, Mrs. Sujatha M, Supervisory Heads, Teachers, Parents, and fellow Students.

The programme centred around the theme 'Cause of Humanity', highlighting the values of social responsibility, empathy, equality, and awareness of Child Rights through a series of meaningful and thought-provoking presentations.

Through a powerful quote, the students highlighted the collective responsibility to eradicate Child Labour and ensure that every child has access to education.

A thought-provoking dramatic presentation showcased how schools can contribute towards the eradication of Child Labour and ensure that every child receives the right to education. The drama highlighted relevant laws and the measures followed by the school to protect children's rights.

A soulful song and a reflective poem were presented, highlighting the transformative power of education and its role in sensitising students towards responsibility, compassion, and humanity.

A speech highlighted the significant role played by the school in creating awareness about Child Labour and nurturing responsible, empathetic, and socially conscious citizens.

A short quiz was conducted by the students to assess the audience's awareness and understanding of Child Labour. The activity encouraged civic responsibility, empathy, and social awareness while making learning interactive and engaging.

The students collectively took a pledge to stand against Child Labour, uphold the rights of every child, and become responsible and compassionate members of society.

The programme concluded with a heartfelt Vote of Thanks, wherein the students expressed their sincere gratitude to everyone who guided, encouraged, and supported them. The Assembly was a meaningful and memorable experience that inspired everyone to reflect upon their responsibility towards building a more just, compassionate, and humane society. The Programme ended with the National Anthem followed by the recitation of the Shanti Paat.
