Date/Day: 13.07.2026 (Monday)

Timing: 8.30 a.m. to 9.00 a.m.

Class Strength: 40

Topic: Qualities of a Good Leader

The Class V-A Assembly on the inspiring theme “Leadership – Three Qualities of a Good Leader” was conducted with great enthusiasm and confidence. The programme commenced with the D.A.V. Gaan, Gayatri Mantra, and Pledge, creating a serene, disciplined, and value-based atmosphere that reflected the ethos of the school.

The programme was gracefully delivered by Jwala Ravin Somi and Veena Krithika, who welcomed the gathering and set the tone for the assembly by emphasizing that true leadership is not about authority but about inspiring, guiding, and serving others with integrity and responsibility. This was followed by a warm Welcome Speech delivered by Afifa Syed, who highlighted the significance of leadership qualities in students' academic, social, and personal lives.

The central theme of the assembly was presented through three insightful speeches. Sree Aaratrikkaa spoke on Strategic Intelligence, explaining how a good leader plans wisely, thinks ahead, and makes informed decisions. Yadala Gautham Viraj elaborated on Interpersonal Intelligence, emphasizing the importance of effective communication, empathy, cooperation, and building strong relationships. Irene Elisheba delivered an engaging speech on Situational Intelligence, illustrating how successful leaders remain calm, adaptable, and confident while making appropriate decisions in challenging situations.

To reinforce the message, the students presented a melodious Group Song that celebrated unity, determination, and teamwork. This was followed by a vibrant Group Dance, which captivated the audience with its energetic performance and beautifully conveyed the spirit of collaboration and leadership.

One of the highlights of the programme was the thought-provoking Nukkad Natak, performed with great enthusiasm by the students. Through realistic situations and powerful dialogues, the skit effectively showcased how qualities such as integrity, empathy, teamwork, self-discipline, and wise decision-making shape responsible and successful leaders. The meaningful presentation left a lasting impression on the audience and conveyed valuable life lessons.

The programme concluded with a concise and impactful Synopsis presented by Lathhissha and Kaushik, who summarised the key takeaways of the assembly and reminded everyone that leadership begins with positive actions and responsible choices in everyday life. The Vote of Thanks was delivered by Dhithee Karthick, expressing sincere gratitude to the Principal, teachers, guests, and fellow students for their encouragement, guidance, and support in making the programme a success.

The assembly concluded with the National Anthem and Shanti Paat, leaving the audience inspired to cultivate the qualities of a good leader in their daily lives. The programme was well-organised, informative, engaging, and confidently presented.
